

CONTENTS

ABSTRACT	5
NOTES ON TRANSLITERATION, DATES, NAMES AND TRANSLATION	11
INTRODUCTION	13
PREVIOUS RESEARCH	17
THE SCOPE OF THE INVESTIGATION	24
TRAVEL WRITING: DEFINITION AND THE LITERARY CONTEXT	33
METHODOLOGY	40
STRUCTURE.....	43
PART 1 – ROMANTIC AESTHETICS AND THE FINNISH LANDSCAPE	45
CHAPTER 1: FINNISH ARCADIA?	51
Science in the countryside.....	52
Picturesque Finland	58
Sentimentality and nostalgia	69
CHAPTER 2: SUBLIME FINLAND	78
Finland and the mythical North.....	81
Primeval landscapes	94
Ineffable impressions	97
PART 2 – PASTORAL ESCAPES	107
CHAPTER 3: EXPERIENCES OF EXOTICISM	113
The significance and realities of the border	114
Where the foreign lay	121
Exoticism bypassed: steamship routes to Finland.....	129

CHAPTER 4: FROM WILDERNESS TO LANDSCAPE: RUSSIANS SIGHTSEEING IN
FINLAND	136
Imatra or the social pilgrimage	138
A collection of natural views and promenades: Finland through the eyes of the
Russian tourist	148
Scenic pleasures prevail	154
CHAPTER 5: A SOPHISTICATED VERSION OF THE RURAL IDYLL	165
From the suburban dacha to Finland	166
A summer season in Helsingfors.....	173
“Pleasant freedom and the agreeable manners of an educated society”	187
PART 3 – IMPERIAL LANDSCAPES	197
CHAPTER 6: CHILDREN OF NATURE: FINNS AS SEEN BY RUSSIANS	202
Finns in racial theories	204
Children of Nature.....	208
The war victim	212
On the state of nature	219
Finns or Čuxoncy?	226
CHAPTER 7: OLD AND NEW FINLAND.....	236
The “other” border: Kymijoki.....	239
Old Finland: Russian land, imperial province.....	245
New Finland, a window to the West	261
CHAPTER 8: SITES OF IMPERIAL MEMORY	274
Memories of the Russian conquest	276
Walking in the Tsar’s footsteps.....	285
Projections of an ideal Empire	293
CONCLUSION.....	317
BIBLIOGRAPHY	328