ORCID

Did you know you can associate your ORCID ID with your ResearcherID account?

I would like to create an ORCID record. The Open Researcher and Contributor ID (ORCID, Inc.) is a non-profit organization that aims to solve the author/contributor name ambiguity problem in scholarly communication by creating a central registry of unique identifiers. These identifiers can be used within various systems you may interact with in your professional research workflow, including manuscript submission, etc.

I already have an ORCID record. By creating an ORCID you will be able to link your ResearcherID account with this centralized registry. Learn more about ORCID.

No, thank you. If you choose not to get or associate an ORCID, you can do it at a later time.

To add publications to your Publication List, select one of the options below by clicking a link.

Note: Depending on your permission to access Web of Science™ and Web of Science™ Core Collection, you will have one or more of the following options:

Option 1:

Web of Science

Search Web of Science

Use this option to search Web of Science. Depending on your subscription, this can include articles, books, patents, and more.

Search Web of Science Core Collection

Use this option to search Web of Science Core Collection. Depending on your subscription, this includes the world's leading scholarly literature in the sciences, social sciences, arts, and humanities and proceedings of international conferences, symposia, seminars, colloquia, workshops, and conventions.

Search Web of Science Core Collection Distinct Author Sets

Use this option to search Web of Science Core Collection for sets of articles written by the same person.

Option 2:

EndNote

Go to EndNote

Use your EndNote account to add articles and manage your ResearcherID publication lists.

Already use EndNote? You can transfer your ResearcherID publication lists between the desktop and web effortlessly. Learn about the additional features available in EndNote to accelerate your research including find full text automatically and access to over 3,700 publishing styles.

Search Online Resources using EndNote

With EndNote, you can collect references from online resources including PubMed and more.
